It is not necessary for applicant to provide a separate record of the substance of the interview, since the interview directly resulted in the allowance of the application. The examiner will provide a written summary of the substance of the interview in the Notice of Allowability.
 It is not necessary for applicant to provide a separate record of the substance of the interview, since the interview did not result in resolution of all issues. A brief summary by the examiner appears in Part II above.

/Phillip Gambel/
 Primary Examiner, Art Unit 1644

(Applicant/Applicant's Representative Signature – if appropriate)

Continuation of Substance of Interview including description of the general nature of what was discussed:

Upon a review of the file application, the examiner noted that the signature on the last page of the Information Disclosure Statement, filed 12/08/2009 and mailed 02/04/2010, was at the bottom of the last page and not in the Examiner Signature Box.

The examiner informed applicant's representative that another signed copy of this Information Disclosure Statement would be forthcoming to avoid any confusion as to whether this Information Disclosure Statement was considered or not.

The Information Disclosure Statement, filed 12/08/2009 and previously mailed 02/04/2010, has been considered.

In addition, in response to applicant's query, the claims filed 01/18/2010, have been entered.
